COVER

Frank Burns will seek his fourth straight winning season as Rutgers head coach, going into the 1976 campaign with a 22-10-1 record. The former Scarlet QB has posted 6-5, 7-3-1 and 9-2 marks and Nate Toran has contributed to each of those fine records. A third team Associated Press All-America last season, the irrepressible defensive end will again head a unit that should merit national honors for the third year in a row.

SCARLET MEDIA MESSAGE

It is the express purpose of the Sports Information Office to assist all those interested in Rutgers football. Your requests for interviews, pictures, slides, film, feature stories, facts and figures are welcomed. Telecopier service is available at our College Avenue Office in Alexander Johnston Hall during the week and we will do our utmost in helping you file your stories from the press box after the games. These services are free of charge. Please advise this office of your need for telecopier assistance prior to each home contest and also make arrangements for the placement of special telephone orders.

Normally, there is room for only one commercial radio station and one student station covering visiting teams, so please request permission to broadcast as soon as possible. The official visiting stations will receive priority.

Rutgers will hold its pre-season camp at The Peddie School in Hightstown, August 23 through September 7. Picture Day is set for August 22 at 2 p.m. in the Stadium area.

If it has not already, we hope that the Scarlet squad will catch your fancy. For press box tickets and information, contact:

DR. EDWARD J. BLOUSTEIN

PRESIDENT

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Introducing Dr. Edward J. Bloustein, modern all-around man in the finest Renaissance tradition.

The 17th president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, Dr. Bloustein is at once a lawyer, a political theorist, a former political analyst for the State Department, professional philosopher, international scholar and teacher.

And he is without a doubt Rutgers' number one sports buff, present and urging on the Scarlet Knights at every sporting event he is able to attend.

Dr. Bloustein was educated at New York University's Washington Square College, where he was graduated as a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He went on to earn a Bachelor of Philosophy degree at Wadham College of Oxford University in 1950, after attending Oxford as a Fulbright Scholar. He earned a Ph.D. in philosophy at Cornell University in 1954 and a law degree there in 1959.

Dr. Bloustein has been awarded honorary degrees by Cedar Crest College, New York University and the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Bloustein was a lecturer in the philosophy of the law and social philosophy at Brooklyn College in 1950-51 and instructor in logic and philosophy at Cornell in 1954-55. He also served as a political analyst for the State Department in 1951-52 and again in 1955-56.

While at the State Department he worked on an analysis of international political movements, specializing in Marxist theory and writing two studies which were published under security classification by the State Department.

Dr. Bloustein served as a law clerk to Judge Stanley H. Fuld of the New York State Court of Appeals from 1959-1961, when he joined the New York University School of Law as an assistant professor. He rose to the rank of full professor in 1964.

When Dr. Bloustein assumed the presidency in 1971 of Rutgers, the eighth oldest university in the United States, he had been president, since 1965, of Bennington College, a small, highly-regarded experimental liberal arts college in Bennington, Vt.

Dr. Bloustein took in stride the leap from a small, private and rural college with an enrollment of only about 550, to the presidency of a major state university with an enrollment then of more than 37,000 in 17 colleges and numerous institutes, located principally on urban campuses in New Brunswick, Camden and Newark.

As befits a man of logical thought and training, Dr. Bloustein is a decisive administrator.

Since coming to Rutgers Dr. Bloustein has decentralized the provosts' offices in New Brunswick, Camden and Newark and reorganized the University's central administration.

Also initiated were an office of Community Affairs and a Rutgers University Foundation to raise private funds. Three new schools, Cook College, the School of Criminal Justice and the Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology were established.

Total enrollment at the University has risen since Dr. Bloustein's administration began to over 46,000.

A prolific writer, Dr. Bloustein is the author or co-author of a number of monographs published in law reviews and journals. He also edited "Nuclear Energy, Public Policy and the Law" and in 1972 published "The University and the Counterculture, Inaugural and other Addresses."

Despite these many activities, Dr. Bloustein teaches one semester a year at each of the three campuses, in Newark, Camden and New Brunswick.

Dr. Bloustein was felled by a heart attack in March of 1976 but was back on duty in time to preside over the University spring graduation exercises.

But to get back to Dr. Bloustein as a sports enthusiast. He often strolls over from his home in Piscataway Township to talk to football coach Frank Burns about the team on the nearby practice field.

Earlier this year, when the Scarlet Knights were about to depart for the NCAA basketball tournament in Philadelphia he sent the team a note of congratulations and best wishes and signed it, "The Other Eddie." This was in wry reference to himself as opposed to "Steady Eddie" Jordan, a mainstay in helping Rutgers compile 31 consecutive victories last winter.

FRANK BURNS

HEAD

UNIVERSITY

It will be four years in January since Frank Robert Burns was appointed head football coach at Rutgers University. And in that short span of time, the Scarlet Knights have quickly become a team to be reckoned with in the East.

Last season had to be one of the most satisfying for the one-time Rutgers quarterback and linebacker. The Scarlet Knights split their first four games and then won the next seven to finish with a 9-2 record, the best mark since the perfect 9-0 season of 1961. With an impressive 21-10 victory over Syracuse in the final game of the year, Rutgers was ranked as the 20th best team in the nation by the New York Daily News. Burns blended a team effort which had the offense averaging 31.5 points per game while the defense was listed in the top 10 in four categories nationally while allowing just 8.3 points per game.

But the splendid season wasn't unexpected. Burns has been slowly building the team, recruiting heavily from the state and instilling an infectious winning spirit. In his first season as head coach, Rutgers compiled a 6-5 mark. Then came an impressive 1974 campaign which featured a 20-3 victory over Air Force on the way to a 7-3-1 record. After last season's 9-2 slate, Burns now has a coaching career mark of 22-10-1, and a hefty winning percentage of .687.

Winning is nothing new to Burns. As a quarterback for the Scarlet, from 1945 through 1948, he established a number of passing records, picking up the nickname, "Flinging Frank". He was selected to the All-East team twice, received honorable mention on most of the All-American teams, played in the 1949 East-West Shrine game and was named the "Most Valuable Player" in the New York Herald-Tribune All-Star game.

"If it were not for my years of coaching association with Rutgers," says the North Brunswick resident, "I probably would not be in coaching today. My years here as a player were a good foundation for me both professionally and philosophically, because I learned how to win and what it takes to be a winner."

His previous coaching assignments at Rutgers were as freshman coach of the running backs (1949-50), freshman head coach (1953-54), varsity backfield coach (1955-56 and 1961-67) and offensive coordinator and associate head coach under John Bateman (1968-72). In between, he served in 1951 and 1952

as head coach of Johns Hopkins, at the time, one of the youngest head coaches in the nation at 23. Following the 1956 campaign, he took over as head coach at Chatham (N.J.) High School, a school which had not been represented in football for 25 years.

Known for his accomplishments as an offensive ball player and coach, he surprised one writer in the past by saying that if he had played at the time of two-platoon football, he would have preferred playing on defense. In fact, he was named MVP in the 1949 College All-Star game with the NFL champion New York Giants for his 17 tackles as a linebacker. The All-Stars won, 28-13, something the collegians have not done too many times since.

Following his graduation, he played professional football with the Jersey City Giants for a brief period before returning to coach at Rutgers full-time.

Burns was also an outstanding catcher for the Scarlet Knight baseball teams. During his senior season, the baseball squad rolled to an 18-8-1 record. That mark is the second best season ever in the history of the sport at Rutgers.

A native of Roselle Park, he is married to the former Linda Randolph of New Brunswick. He has three children, Frank, Jr., 23; Thomas, 22, a student at Rutgers; and Barbara Jean, 19. Frank, Jr., graduated from Nichols College in 1974 where he was named to the ECAC Division III All-Star team as a quarterback.

"I'm really looking forward to the coming season," says Burns. "We have a blend of veterans and youth which gives us a lot of confidence going into the new campaign. Of course one of the keys to the entire year has to be the replacement of the four starters from last year. Whatever way you look at it, the season is going to be very interesting, especially with an opening at Navy."

SCARLET FOOTBALL STAFF

ROBERT NASO, Defensive Coordinator

A 1959 Rutgers graduate, Bob was a gifted lacrosse player, earning second team All-America honors as a midfielder while also performing at two positions, center and blocking back, for the Scarlet single-wing football teams between 1956 and 1958. Naso was a standout scholastic player in both sports at Sewanhaka High School on Long Island. His coaching career began as Rutgers lightweight football and lacrosse assistant immediately after his graduation. After an Army stint, he was made varsity lacrosse coach and directed the freshman football program in 1961. His frosh football record for three seasons was 11-4-1 and, after four years as a defensive coach, he became defensive coordinator in 1968 under John Bateman and continues in that role under Frank Burns. Naso gave up his lacrosse duties in 1974 after 13 seasons and a 95-59-1 career record. Many of his stick squads were ranked among the nation's top teams and his squad twice appeared in the national playoffs. In 1969, he served as head coach of the North team in the annual North-South lacrosse game and was an assistant three other times. Naso, his wife, Carol, and their three daughters, Andrea (15), Cynthia (12), and Felicia (8), live in Piscataway.

WILLIAM SPERANZA, Offensive Coordinator

Bill was the starting quarterback on the undefeated Rutgers football team of 1961 and until 1974 held the school record for the longest pass completion (87 yards to Lee Curley against Princeton during the unbeaten season). Also a former baseball player at Rutgers, Speranza is in his third season as offensive backfield coach and in addition now serves as offensive coordinator. He is credited with the development of "JJ" Jennings as the national scoring leader in 1973. Speranza also had two perfect seasons as a coach, taking the Scarlet freshmen to identical 5-0 records in 1965 and 1967. The 1962 Rutgers alumnus played on football teams that compiled 24 wins in 27 games and on baseball squads that showed a combined 40-14 mark. Following a three-year 15-5 record as frosh coach, Speranza took charge of the varsity defensive backs in 1968. Bill and his wife, Linda, live in Somerville.

JAMES TAIGIA, Offensive Line Coach

His chiefly wisdom as a hard-nosed ex-sailor on the fine post-war Rutgers teams of the late forties earned Jim the nickname, "Chief," and the Scarlet linemen who have learned their trade from him over the years continue to respect him in kind. His insistent methods have motivated Rutgers linemen since 1968. A tough two-way guard on the Frank Burns-led teams, Taigia enjoyed an extensive scholastic coaching career prior to his appointment at his alma mater. The long-time resident of Highland Park served initially at Rahway, then at Piscataway and at Hillside before returning to Rahway. Like the popular investment broker, when Taigia talks, everybody listens; his particular investment being the development of blockers. As a player during the 47-48-49 seasons, "Chief" helped the Scarlet sail through 8-1, 7-2 and 6-3 records. The former well-known basketball official now lives with his wife, Ruth, in New Brunswick.

STAFF (Continued)

PETER SAVINO, Defensive Back Coach

Like his fellow coaches, Burns, Naso, Speranza and Taigia, Pete is a former Rutgers player, so versatile that he saw service in three different positions, at quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. The 1969 alumnus was the first recipient of the New Brunswick Touchdown Club Trophy which recognized the impact his ability, leadership and dedication had during his career. A Belle Mead resident, Savino starred as a signal-caller at Perth Amboy where he also played basketball, baseball and was a member of the track squad. Named a Rutgers freshman assistant in 1969, he missed the following season because of a military obligation and returned to coach the frosh team for two seasons, winning seven of 13 games. He was chosen the defensive backfield coach in 1973 where his intimacy with his players is especially noteworthy. Savino's students rewarded his first season with a record 27 interceptions. Tony Pawlik and Ed Jones were nationally ranked in that category and share the all-time interception mark with John Pollock at 14. Pete and his wife, Jill, have a daughter, Suzanne Gail, 3½.

TED COTTRELL, Defensive Line Coach

The Scarlet defensive line is traditionally one of the closest knit of the team's units and under Cottrell last year, it was not only the most harmonious but clearly one of the best in Rutgers history. His imposing personality (and size) captured his charges in his first season here three years ago. A task master who wisely spreads his rewards, Ted employs the tactics he learned in four years of pro ball with the Atlanta Falcons and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Following his pro experience, Cottrell served for a season as assistant football coach and track mentor at his alma mater, Delaware Valley, where he won All-Middle Atlantic Conference honors three times. His rapport with the defensive line is especially noted when he leads calisthenics and gets back much vocal support. His veterans and his young learners respect his dedication and his enthusiasm. Ted lives in New Brunswick with his wife, Barbara.

RICHARD CURL, Varsity Receivers Coach

Dick joined the Rutgers staff two springs ago and works with wide receivers and tight ends as well as directing the sub-varsity program. His appointment followed a year as head coach at Trenton State where he guided the Lions to a 5-4-1 record after serving a season as offensive coordinator. Previously, Curl coached at Cherry Hill East High School for five years. One of his scholastic stars, Mark Twitty, is the starting Scarlet wide receiver. A native of Chester, Pa., Curl is a 1962 graduate of Richmond where he lettered as a quarterback and received an A.B. degree in History. His graduate work was completed at Bloomsburg State and Glassboro State. The popular South Jersey scholastic coach is a natural for his recruiting duties in that area. Dick and his wife, Beverly, reside in Cinnaminson and are the parents of three daughters, Debbie (15), Karen (13), and Susan (7).

FREDERICK E. GRUNINGER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

A member of the Rutgers Athletic Department since 1964, Fred Gruninger assumed the duties of Athletic Director in January, 1973. Nearly into his fourth year at the post, he continues to head an expanding program of sports with unbridled enthusiasm and confident ability. This past season the Scarlet Knight athletic program achieved 31 consecutive basketball victories, seven straight football wins, nine triumphs in a row for the women's swimming team, 11 fencing conquests in order and a winning percentage of over 60 per cent for 23 intercollegiate sports to bring Rutgers University unparalleled state and national attention.

"We have sought to make the program totally effective in each sport, men's and women's, without exception," explains Gruninger. "We will continue to provide every possible opportunity for all our undergraduates to participate."

Gruninger is a 1953 Rutgers alumnus who played football and baseball as an undergraduate and later excelled in golf, turning professional for a brief period. He coached the Scarlet golf team from 1964 through the 1973 season and posted an outstanding record of 109-30-2.

Prior to his current appointment, Gruninger served as assistant, then associate athletic director for nine years after a five-year period in the alumni relations department.

A native of Fanwood and a resident of Martinsville, Gruninger earned his master's degree from Rutgers in 1961. He served a number of years as a high school teacher and coach. He and his wife, Barbara, are the parents of three children, Mark, Katherine and John.

DONALD HEILMAN, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

A successful head football coach at Kutztown State College in Pennsylvania for six years, Bud Heilman joined the Rutgers staff as offensive line coach in 1966. He was named assistant director of athletics in 1969 and continued to serve as an assistant in football, coaching the defensive line for two more seasons. Heilman, a native of York, Pa., and a graduate of West Chester State, served as an enlisted man on a Navy destroyer in the Pacific and European Theaters from 1943 to 1946 before he began his coaching career as an assistant at Downingtown, Pa., High School in 1950. He became head coach at Alexis I. duPont High School in Delaware for five years before joining the college ranks as an assistant at Bloomsburg, Pa., State. Heilman and his wife Nancy reside in Spotswood and are the parents of seven children. His son, Buddy, played halfback for the Scarlet varsity last year.

OTTO H. HILL, BUSINESS MANAGER

A member of the Rutgers staff for 30 years, Otto Hill was appointed business manager of athletics in 1961. A 1942 Rutgers graduate, Hill was a member of the football staff from 1947 through 1955. He served as junior varsity coach, head freshman coach and varsity end coach. Hill also coached the freshman swimming team for nine years while adding the varsity responsibility in 1953-54. A former associate professor of physical education, Hill is a veteran of Army and Air Force service during World War II and earned a master's degree from Rutgers in 1947. In 1961 he was nominated as "Business Manager of the Year" by the College Athletic Business Managers Association. The Brooklyn native, and his wife, Elizabeth, are the parents of three children and live in Franklin Township. Their son, John, is a former offensive lineman for the New York Giants and now is playing his football for the New Orleans Saints.

Scarlet 1976 Spirit

A year in which we have seen bright Bicentennial celebrations, a brilliant Olympics (in which three Rutgers athletes participated), two proud national political conventions and an astounding Mars landing is about to usher in another football season. For Rutgers, it comes in boldly following a 9-2 season in which the Scarlet Knights received a goodly share of national attention (a 20th ranking by the New York Daily News). And, the 1976 season promises the same kind of spirit — need we say, Scarlet — that built so grandly during the Year for Scarlet Fever.

The slogan "Scarlet Fever" was born on these pages last year and turned out to be an accurate description of the 1975 football season. It was predicted here that the "a high pitch of excitement" would crescendo through the schedule as the Scarlet Knights would meet seven opponents at home.

Coming into that season, Rutgers had put together a 7-3-1 record in 1974 and brought back most of a spectacular defensive unit that had ranked sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, in addition to being ranked second in total defense, third in scoring allowance and third against the run among the independent teams across the country.

Despite an offense that had not yet proved itself fully confident in the wing-T system, the anticipated strength of the defense allowed climbing out a bit on the limb to predict a panic of Scarlet Fever.

All came out superbly as the 1975 Scarlet Knights responded with a ninth undefeated home season, a five-year run of winning records, and a 9-2 campaign in Frank Burns' third year as head coach. The nine wins equalled the 1961 win total as the highest in Rutgers' history.

From the start, it was the defense that inspired the fever, finally receiving national recognition among the top 10 in four categories. Finishing fourth nationally in total defense and scoring defense, the Scarlet also was eighth in rushing defense and ninth in passing defense. Opponents were limited to 8.3 points a game and 117.5 rushing yards per contest. For a period of 19 quarters, the defense did not allow a score from scrimmage and for the year, permitted just four TDs in Rutgers Stadium. Only two touchdowns were scored by passes as the defense allowed only 85.8 yards per game through the air.

Meanwhile, the offense caught fire in the fifth game and would total 347 points for the season, an average of 31.5 per game. Records were set for total yardage (4,020), rushing yardage (2,895), rushing attempts (628) and total plays (779).

Burns, whose record leaped to 22-10-1, summed up the year by saying, "This has been a tremendous season for us. Offensively and defensively, these young men have performed with a consistency that makes us extremely proud. Ending the year with seven straight wins is consummate with the team's ability, and the team deserves the high national ranking it achieved. The final win over Syracuse (21-10) was a fine accomplishment and should send us into the 1976 season with loads of confidence. We like to think that we can go out on the field against just about anyone."

The 1976 schedule features five home games, the big season opener at Navy which owns a 5-1-1 record in the series although the Scarlet Knights won the most recent encounter in 1969 (20-6), and four other opponents not scheduled last year — Cornell in a Homecoming clash, Massachusetts and Louisville also at home and Tulane in New Orleans (Superdome). Rutgers has not met the latter two but has faced UMass twice, losing both in 1967 and 1973, and has just a pair of wins in nine games with Cornell, the last a 36-22 loss in 1972. Bucknell, the Princeton (the 67th meeting in the 107-year old series), Connecticut, Lehigh, Columbia (the first collegiate game in Giants Stadium) and Colgate round out the attractive 11-game 1976 schedule.

There is considerable basis for Burns' optimistic outlook. Eighteen of 22 starters and 40 lettermen in all return from last year's 9-2 squad. A seven-game win streak is on the line as they attempt to give Burns his fourth consecutive winning season as head coach and also to make it six in a row for Rutgers. Lost are linebackers Tom Holmes and Dwight Lipscomb, with both four-year starters. All-East fullback Curt Edwards who shared the captaincy with Holmes and averaged 105 yards a game, and offensive guard Jim Clements, a late season starter.

Burns says, however, "We should have a seasoned team. Offensively, we should be more confident in the system (the third in the wing-T) and the defense should remain strong. Two keys will be the replacement of the starters we lost and the tough opener with Navy."

Third team All-America Nate Toran and a much underrated John Alexander will pursue their fourth letter awards while also snatching unheeding ball carriers. The superb duo will be joined on the front by one-year vets Rich Wagner and Dan Gray to give the Scarlet a very formidable advance force on defense. A defensive secondary that picked off 14 (of

THE SPIRITED SCARLET DEFENSE

19 total interceptions) passes and helped limit opponents to just a little over four yards per attempt (the nation's top figure) returns intact and includes Jim Teatom, Dave Figueroa and Henry Jenkins, all seniors, and junior Bob Davis. Jenkins also returns punts and was fourth ranked in the nation last year. Vying for the inside linebacking posts, one of which Holmes handled masterfully for four seasons, are Elvin Washington, a two-year award winner, and one-year vets Tim Blanchard and Jim Hughes, all tough, strong and intelligent.

The quarterback spot will be an interesting contest between juniors Jeff Rebholz, who directed the offense over the last seven games in 1975 and winning all of them as well as the confidence of fans and teammates, and Bert Kosup, the 1974 signal caller who led the Scarlet to a 7-3-1 record while amassing nearly 1,100 yards on 63 completions and nine TD connections. Kosup missed last season with a shoulder injury. It is not an unhappy QB situation for Rutgers.

Junior wingback Mike Fisher, a two-year starter, is the leading runner returning and is joined by squat junior Mark Lassiter, powerful senior Jeff Greczyn and a host of hopefuls who have waited in the wings for a season or more. An influx of freshman talent could also make the situation a highly competitive one. Fisher gained 545 yards and scored eight times on runs and added six receptions with a 21-yard average and a TD for a 54-point total, second to Edwards' 66. Lassiter averaged 5.7 yards per attempt and was just 13 yards short of Fisher's output. Greczyn is due to come into his own and others, including Joe Mele, Mike Santarpio and Glen Kehler, now have a season of varsity ball under their belts.

Senior Mark Twitty is the Scarlet long ball threat and topped the receivers last year with 27 catches for 544 yards and seven touchdowns. Junior Jon Walling and senior Mark Debes, both 6-5 and with soft hands as well as great blocking skills, provide strong security at the tight end position.

The offensive line has considerable brawn and experience and will be led again by All-East guard Tony Ray, a junior and a rock-hard and speedy 235-pounder. Opposite Ray will be veteran Dan Pfabe, a senior with the determination to succeed although he will be pressed by younger men. Flanking the pair at the tackle posts are pillar-like seniors Nick Sauter (6-5, 270) and Jim O'Halloran (6-3, 240), both of whom will have to stay on their toes to ward off the challenge of sophomore John Gallo (6-4, 270). Depth is there also but is in need of experience.

THE SCARLET KNIGHTS OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

JOHN FRANCIS AHERN, 21, 6-0, 200, senior defensive back from Metuchen . . . Quikquote: "A very dependable player who plays smart football; the special team leader who hustles and gives 110 per cent all the time he's on the field." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. John is noted for fine play on special teams and does not make many mistakes. Played exceptionally well as defensive back for junior varsity. Could also be used as a quarterback in a pinch. A math education major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: All-county quarterback at Metuchen High School and was named the county "Scholar Athlete." Also lettered in basketball and baseball.

JOHN ALEXANDER, 20, 6-3, 240, senior defensive tackle from Plainfield . . . Quikquote: "Super, without a doubt as good as any defensive tackle in the country; has got to be recognized this year; great pro potential because of size, strength and agility." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1973, 1974 and 1975; one of only two three-letter winners on squad with Nate Toran and has started 25 straight games. Earned honorable mention accolades to AP All-American, AP All-East and ECAC All-East teams. Strength and speed gave him six QB sacks for minus 36 yards last year. In 1974 he had 52 tackles and blocked two kicks. Majoring in History at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: Attended Plainfield High School where he was a teammate of Dwight Lipscomb, a four-year standout linebacker for Rutgers. John made the all-area and all-county teams as a two-way tackle and also earned letters in basketball and baseball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1974 Prim. 42 / Asst. 10 / Total 52. 1975 Prim. 40 / Asst. 8 / Tot. 48.

MATTHEW B. ALLISON, 22, 6-2, 195, junior split end from Denville . . . Quikquote: "Matt has good speed and is a fine overall athlete; it takes time and a lot of work to switch positions on any team." — (Curl) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Started the season at quarterback when injury sidelined Bert Kosup. Threw for four touchdowns against Bucknell but lost job to Jeff Rebholz in fifth game. Moved to split end in spring. Came to Rutgers from County College of Morris after playing professional baseball and played for the Jayvees . . . Scholastic Background: An all-state and all-county performer in both football and baseball at Morris Knolls, Matt signed a baseball contract with the Philadelphia Phillies and played for their Pulaski, Va. team . . . Varsity Statistics: (Passing) Att. 81 - Comp. 44 / Yds. 510 / Int. 5 / TD's 6; (Rushing) Att. 27 / Yds. 56 / TD's 2.

RUTGERS

KARL ANDERSON, 20, 6-2, 215, junior defensive end from Westbury, N.Y. . . . Quikquote: "A smart player who is very coachable; strong with good agility, plays on the right side which is a combination linebacker and front line spot. Has all the tools." — (Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Saw only limited action last year since the defensive unit was a veteran unit. Missed spring practice to play baseball compiling a 3-3 record with a 3.88 ERA. Lost a 1-0 eight-inning heartbreaker to St. John's in ECAC playoffs. Physical education major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: All-Nassau and Gridiron 44 at W. T. Clarke High School as quarterback and linebacker. All-Met in baseball and also played basketball. Won total of 10 letters.

RICK BALDWIN, 19, 6-3, 220, sophomore defensive end from Westfield . . . Quikquote: "Rick has a tremendous attitude; he's young and doesn't have a lot of experience but he's a hitter and is always hustling." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Starter for the JV team last year and saw limited action for the varsity. Already rated as one of the top defensive line reserves, he should see plenty of playing time this year. A liberal arts major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Two-way end at Westfield High School where he was All-Group IV and second team All-State while playing with Glen Kehler, whose father, Gary Kehler, coached both.

RUTGERS

TIMOTHY M. BLANCHARD, 20, 6-1, 210, junior linebacker from Randolph . . . Quikquote: "Tim has excellent lateral movement to go with better than average size and speed. He has fine football intelligence." — (Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Saw plenty of action last year as the key reserve linebacker. Listed as the top linebacker after spring practice. Called Tim and "Blanch". Majoring in business at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-state, all-county and all-area performer at Randolph High School from which he graduated in 1974. DENNIS ECKELS, 20, 6-3, 235, junior defensive tackle from Easton, CT . . . Quikquote: "Dennis has a real good attitude. He realizes that to improve you have to work very hard and that's exactly what he does. Good strength and a tough hitter." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. After a good spring, Dennis has moved behind Dan Gray as the reserve right tackle on the early season depth charts. Started for the JV team at guard as a freshman but was moved to defense the following spring. A student at the College of Engineering . . . Scholastic Background: Eckles, a rugged competitor, was all-county and all-area as an offensive tackle and defensive end at Bridgeport's Notre Dame High School in Connecticut. He also threw the javelin in track.

RUTGERS

JOHN FEDORCHAK, 20, 6-2, 225, junior center from Cranford . . . Quikquote: "An intelligent and finesse-type blocker, John is strong and dependable. He handles the ball well and didn't make many mistakes last year." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Started most of the year at center but was bothered at times by a back injury. As a freshman he alternated as a starter for the junior varsity and as a back-up for Andy Zbodylak. Adapts to quarterback changes with great ease. Menaces opponent linebackers with sharp blocking skills which open up the running game. Majoring in physical education at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Made all-conference and all-county in football at Cranford High School and also lettered in wrestling.

WITTEDC

Hoboken High School graduate, he was an all-county receiver and defensive back. Also lettered in track and basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1974 Prim. 5 / Asst. 5 / Tot. 10; 1975 Prim. 20 / Asst. 7 / Tot. 27.

MICHAEL M. FISHER, 20, 5-11, 190, junior halfback from Edison . . . Quikquote: "A very intelligent competitor, Mike is a versatile runner who can catch a pass or throw the key block." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. Second leading scorer and rusher behind Curt Edwards with nine touchdowns and 545 yards. Averaged better than 25 yards for 8 kickoff returns. As a frosh, he was one of two rookies to start, along with Tony Ray. He responded by gaining over 600 yards, including a 104-yard performance against Bucknell. A business administration major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Garnered all-state, all-conference and all-area honors at Edison High School where he graduated in 1974. Also lettered in basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1974 Att. 102 / Yds. 622 / TD's 2; 1975 Att. 127 / Yds. 545 / TD's 8. (Receiving) 1974 Cgt. 9 / Yds. 182 / TD's 0; 1975 Cgt. 6 / Yds. 127 / TD's 1. (Kick-off Returns) 1975 No. 8 / Yds. 213 / TD's 0. (Punts) No. 5 / Yds. 72 / TD's 0.

RUTGERS

DAVID FIGUEROA, 22, 6-1, 180, junior cornerback from Hoboken . . . Quikquote: "Dave has constantly shown improvement. He's now a very steady player and one of his best assets is his ability to react quickly. Definitely not an easy man to beat." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. A solid starter last year, he wound up with three interceptions and four passes broken up. Returned one interception for a 64-yard touchdown against Bucknell. His brother, Angelo, played on the 1973 team. Nicknamed "Fig," he is a liberal arts major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: A 1973 Hoboken High School graduate, he was an all-county receiver and defensive back.

Also lettered in track and basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1974 Prim. 5 / Asst. 5 / Tot. 10; 1975 Prim. 20 / Asst. 7 / Tot. 27.

RUTGERS

JOHN E. GALLO, 19, 6-4, 270, sophomore offensive tackle from Yonkers, NY . . . Quikquote: "John is young and strong but needs more experience. A good blocker with strong legs, John has a bright future ahead of him." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975, one of just four freshman. Made first start of career against Lafayette but played most of season as a reserve. Enrolled in pre-law at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: A two-way tackle, John was twice selected to the all-league squad at Lincoln High School in Yonkers, N. Y. Also an all-star in baseball at first base with .385 batting average.

DITCDO

DANIEL T. GRAY, 20, 6-6, 235, junior defensive tackle from Delaware (NJ) . . . Quikquote: "Dan has a fine future with potential greatness. He has good size and better-than-average mobility. His confidence has been increasing." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Started all 11 games at right tackle last year and should do the same again. Recovered and caused two fumbles. Also broke up three passes. As a freshman, started for jayvees and was a varsity reserve. A biology major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county, all-conference and all-area pick as a senior at Belvidere High School in 1974. Also lettered in wrestling and baseball . . . Varsity Statistics: 1975 (Tackles) Prim. 38 / Asst. 19 / Tot. 57.

JEFFREY A. GRECZYN, 21, 6-3, 215, senior fullback from Cranbury . . . Quikquote: "One of the most determined players on the team. Very strong and can bust through for the gain. Jeff is also a good receiver and blocker." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. A knee injury hampered Jeff a good part of last season. Looked good during spring practice and was listed as the No. 1 fullback. Did not lose a yard when carrying ball last year. Switched from halfback to fullback as a sophomore. Enrolled in special education curriculum at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: During his senior season in 1973 at Hightstown High School, Jeff made third team all-state, All-Delaware Valley, All-Shore and All-Suburban. Played in every basketball game for three years and was presented the Sportsmanship Trophy . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1974 Att. 21 / Yds. 76 / TD's 0; 1975 Att. 20 / Yds. 73 / TD's 1. (Receiving) 1974 Cgt. 2 / Yds. 21 / TD's 0; 1975 Cgt. 8 / Yds. 46 / TD's 0.

RUTGERS

THOMAS P. GRITT, 20, 6-3, 210, sophomore tight end from Cherry Hill . . . Quikquote: "A South Jersey player who has good speed but needs work on his blocking; good attitude and hustle." — (Curl) . . . Rutgers Experience: Started for the JV squad. After a respectable spring, ranked as No. 3 tight end. Business Administration major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Played tight end for four years at Bishop Eustace Prep in Pennsauken. Also played basketball for a team that was the Parochial B State Champion. A fine overall athlete considered one of the best during his senior year at Eustace.

RUTGERS

DONALD HARRIS, 22, 6-2, 190, junior defensive back from Elizabeth . . . Quikquote: "Don has super speed but he needs to develop consistency to become a very good football player . . . A tough competitor." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Just missed starting last year and wound up seeing plenty of playing time. Played on special teams. Likes to be known as "Mad Dog." A liberal arts major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county and all-area defensive halfback and wide receiver for Frank Cicarelli at Thomas Jefferson High School in Elizabeth. Rated one of the top high school athletes in Union County during his senior year.

ROBERT A. HERING, 19, 6-3, 185, sophomore quarterback from Scotch Plains . . . Quikquote: "A player with excellent potential, Bob has missed a lot with injuries but he hasn't given up. Great poise for a young quarterback." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: A knee injury hobbled Bob almost all of last year. He was finally operated on and looked good during the first few days of spring practice. Missed the rest of practice and the spring game with more knee problems. His father, Herm, was teammate of Coach Burns. Bob has plenty of desire and determination in addition to a wealth of natural ability. A smart player, he picked up the Rutgers system quickly for a freshman last year. Has shown a good passing arm when not sidelined. A physical education major at Cook College. Scholastic Background: An all-area quarterback for Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School. Also lettered in baseball.

One of the top scorers in state . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1975 Att. 10 / Yds. 54 / TD's 0; (PAT's) Att. 41 / Made 37; (FG's) Att. 3 / Made 0.

RUTGERS

RAYMOND E. KINCH, 21, 6-1, 210, junior offensive guard from Carteret . . . Quikquote: "Ray showed plenty of promise in his first year. He's a very fluid blocker and loves to pull." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Did not play as a freshman. Started one game at center when John Fedorchak was injured. Also saw action as a reserve lineman and with the special teams. An elementary education major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: Won three letters in football at Carteret High School where he was an offensive guard and linebacker. Also lettered in basketball.

RUTGERS

ALBERT J. KOSUP, 21, 5-11, 180, junior quarterback from Edison . . . Quikquote: "Bert is a confident leader who shows great poise. He runs the option well and has a very good passing arm." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974. Missed all of last year with a shoulder injury he sustained in pre-season camp. The year before, as a sophomore, Bert went over 1,000 yards in total offense. He started every game in 1974 and led Rutgers to several offensive records and a national season high of 781 total offensive yards against Colgate. His 1,206 yards ranks him among the top ten in Scarlet history. A physical education major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county QB at J. P. Stevens High School in Edison. Also lettered in baseball and basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Passing) 1974 Att. 150 / Cmp. 64 / Yds. 1070 / Int. 15 / TD's 9; (Rushing) Att. 80 / Yds. 136 / TD's 6.

MARK W. LASSITER, 20, 5-10, 195, junior halfback from Cinnaminson . . . Quikquote: "Mark showed what kind of runner he can be last year. He is very strong and breaks tackles with ease. One of his best assets is his excellent balance." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Started in the fifth game of the season with the offense sputtering and helped Rutgers to be undefeated over the last seven games as the right halfback. Averaged 5.7 yards per carry and wound up fifth leading scorer on squad with 30 points. A business major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-state, all-county and Prep-All-American as a halfback at Cinnaminson High School. Also lettered in basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1975 Att. 93 / Yds. 532 / TD's 5; (Receiving) Cgt. 4 / Yds. 58 / TD's 0.

DANIEL L. PFABE, 21, 6-2, 220, senior offensive guard from Louisville, Ohio . . . Quikquote: "Dan has come a long way since his days as a freshman. He has probably the best form on the team. With his experience he has a lot of confidence coming into the season." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. Pre-season depth chart listed him as starter at left guard. Started the opener last year but lost his job after four games. Still saw plenty of action as a reserve. Switched to offense from a linebacking spot as a sophomore. Environmental planning major at Rutgers College . . .

RUTGERS

Scholastic Background: Dan did it all for St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Louisville, Ohio. He was selected all-state, all-conference, all-area, and all-Diocese as a linebacker and fullback while competing for four years. He also found time to letter in basketball and track.

ANTHONY RAY, 20, 5-11, 235, junior offensive guard from Newark . . . Quikquote: "Tony is the best one-on-one blocker on the team. A hard-nosed player, he's quick and very strong. He's as good a guard as we've had here in my experience." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. Tony has started 22 straight games since he came to the Banks two years ago as one of the top high school players in New Jersey. As a freshman he came into camp and immediately won the starting job at tackle. Moved over to guard last year to take advantage of his ability to pull and his speed. Earned ECAC All-East honors last year. A tough blocker, Ray opens up large holes and was one of the reasons the Scarlet running game was so successful last season. Considered by many football people as one of the best guards in the East this year. A liberal arts student at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Tony won four letters at East Side High School and was all-city, all-county and all-state in both his junior and senior seasons. A very versatile athlete, Tony was considered one of the best athletes in Newark during his senior year. He also won four letters in track.

RUTGERS

JEFFREY A. REBHLZ, 20, 6-2, 195, junior quarterback from Millington . . . Quikquote: "Jeff turned out to be quite a winner last year. He proved that determination and hustle are always rewarded. An excellent passer, Jeff is very intelligent and showed what excellent poise he has." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Took over as the starting quarterback in the fifth game last year after the team had split its first four games. Led the team to a remarkable seven straight victories, including the big win over Syracuse. Not in the starting QB picture at the beginning of last spring but injury to Bert Kosup moved him behind Matt Allison and then into the starting berth. Threw eight TD passes in the seven games. Best performance was completing six-of-nine passes against Colgate for 230 yards and two TD's. As a freshman, Jeff was the jayvee back-up QB. In fact, last year he dressed in the jayvee locker room all season. Business Administration major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Played football at St. Charles High School in St. Charles, Ill., for two seasons before moving to Millington, N.J., where he attended Watchung Hills Regional High School. Played only basketball at Watchung, making the all-conference squad . . . Varsity Statistics: (Passing) 1975 Att. 69 / Cmp. 33 / Yds. 715 / Int. 4 / TD's 8; (Rushing) Att. 20 / Yds. —24 / TD's 2.

MICHAEL J. SANTARPIO, 20, 5-9, 195, junior fullback from Pennsauken . . . Quikquote: "A tough competitor, Mike always gives his best when he's on the field. He can get the rugged yardage." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Saw limited action as a reserve fullback but managed to average 4.6 yards per carry. Also played on special teams. As a freshman played fullback for the JV squad. A business major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: One of the top running backs in South Jersey while at Cherry Hill West High School. Earned All-Group IV, all-area, all-conference and all-Delaware Valley honors. An excellent all-round athlete, Mike also lettered in track and wrestling . . . Varsity Statistics: 1975 (Rushing) Att. 14 / Yds. 65 / TD's 1.

RUTGERS

NICHOLAS M. SAUTER, 21, 6-5, 270, senior offensive tackle from Totowa . . . Quikquote: "Nick is one of the most improved players on the team. He works very hard and wants to play football. A very good blocker." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. One of the key reserves last year on the offensive line. Started irregularly. Slated as the starting right tackle in the pre-season depth chart. Played strictly on defense as a freshman but moved to offense as a sophomore. Strong and quick, Nick is a key man on the offensive line with his experience. Has intense desire to be a good player. A liberal arts major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Nick was rated one of the top athletes in North Jersey during his senior year. He was all-county, all-league, all-area and third team all-state as a tackle at Passaic Valley High School. Also found time to letter in both track and wrestling.

RUTGERS

WILLIAM H. STEBBINS, 20, 6-4, 245, junior offensive tackle from Barnegat . . . Quikquote: "Bill is big and strong, but still lacks that little bit of extra experience needed to be an outstanding lineman. Still has to learn more about the offensive system." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Saw limited action last year as a reserve offensive lineman. Slated to be the back-up at the right tackle. A marine biology major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Though a resident of Barnegat, Bill attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden where he was an all-conference tackle. A fine imposing athlete, Bill also found time to play baseball for the South Jersey school.

RUTGERS

JOHN R. STRYS, 21, 6-1, 218, senior defensive tackle from Wharton . . . Quikquote: "John is a very tough player who always hustles on the field. He's done a very good job for the special teams in the past and we're looking for him to be a key reserve lineman for us this year." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. John was a reserve guard on offense early last season but was moved back to defense. Was a defensive end his first two years at Rutgers, always listed as a top reserve. Gives the defensive unit another veteran among its ranks. A social science major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: Earned all-conference, all-county and honorable mention all-state honors as a two-way end at Jefferson Township High School.

RUTGERS

JAMES R. TEATOM, 21, 5-10, 190, senior strong safety from Massapequa Park, N.Y. . . . Quikquote: "A very steady player. Jim is a great competitor and you can always count on him making the play when he's on the field. A seasoned veteran who has proven himself." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. This will be the third year in a starting role for Teatom, who received honorable mention to the ECAC team. Led the squad in interceptions with four along with Henry Jenkins and also topped everyone with seven passes broken up. Also had four interceptions as a sophomore. Quick hands also give him three career fumble recoveries. For the second straight year he lettered in both football and lacrosse. A second team All-American in lacrosse, Teatom was the squad's second leading scorer with 17 goals and 10 assists for a total of 27 points. Twice during the season he was the team's leading scorer in a game. One of his best performances came in the opener against C.W. Post when he scored four goals in a 14-11 victory. Organizes his time well during the school year so playing two sports doesn't bother him. Lacrosse coach Tom Hayes has nothing but words of praise for him. A physical education major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county selection in three sports during an impressive high school career, Jim was an all-state choice in football at Farmingdale High School in Long Island. He ended up earning three letters each in football, lacrosse and wrestling. Highly recruited out of high school . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1974 Prim. 46 / Asst. 25 / Total 71; 1975 Prim. 31 / Asst. 9 / Total 40.

NATHANIEL TORAN, 23, 6-2, 225, senior defensive end from Perth Amboy . . . Quikquote: "What can you say about Nate? He's just an All-American in my book and one of the finest individuals a person would want to coach. A great pro prospect, Nate has a tremendous attitude and is tough, quick, strong and agile. I wouldn't like to play against him." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1973, 1974, 1975. A fantastic season in 1975 earned Nate third team All-American honors and a spot on both the AP and ECAC All-East squads for the second straight year. Recipient of the Rutgers David Bender Trophy as the outstanding lineman. Led the team in QB sacks with 16 for losses totaling 103 yards while topping team with six fumbles caused and four fumble recoveries. Also broke up three passes. As a sophomore he had 19 QB sacks for 115 lost yards, four fumbles recovered, two fumbles caused and five passes broken up. Started halfway through his freshman year in place of injured Dwight Lipscomb. Named numerous times to the ECAC weekly teams. A real leader, Nate has a burning desire to be successful on the football field. When asked what he learned after the Lehigh loss, Nate replied: "I don't want to lose anymore." The Scarlet Knights then went on to win the next seven games sparked by his superb defensive play. Numerous pre-season publications have already ranked Nate as a first team All-American or one of the top players in the East to watch this fall. Likes to work out; the coaching staff claims he can lift more weight than any player on the squad. Biological Science major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: A three-year football letterman at Perth Amboy High School. Nate missed his senior season because of a shoulder injury but earned all-county honors as a junior. Also played basketball and set the school record in shot putt . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1974 Prim. 46 / Asst. 22 / Total 68; 1975 Prim. 42 / Asst. 19 / Total 61.

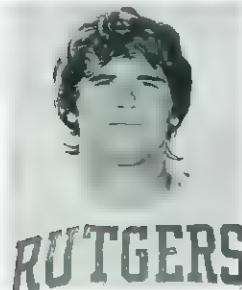

RUTGERS

C. MARK TWITTY, 20, 5-11, 175, senior wide receiver from Lawrenceville . . . Quikquote: "Mark has tons of natural ability. He has excellent speed and very good hands. One of his best assets is the ability to accelerate at just the right time and lose his man." — (Curl) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. A real crowd pleaser, Mark has been known to spike the ball after a score . . . once. Led the team in receiving, averaging 22.7 yards per reception. Also third leading scorer with 42 points. Played halfback as a sophomore but an injury cost him the starting job. He combined with Bert Kosup for a record 90-yard pass play against Colgate in 1974. Had a text-book perfect 78-yard touchdown catch against Syracuse which helped produce the upset victory . . . Scholastic Background: Mark played his high school football under current Scarlet receiver coach Dick Curl at Cherry Hill East. He played four positions for Cherry Hill, including quarterback, and was an all-South Jersey choice in football and baseball as well as a member of the track squad . . . Varsity Statistics (Receiving) 1974 Cgt. 9 / Yds. 314 / TD's 3; 1975 Cgt. 24 / Yds. 544 / TD's 7. (Rushing) 1974 Att. 16 / Yds. 15 / TD's 0 (KO Returns) 1974 No. 1 / Yds. 26; 1975 No. 2 / Yds. 40 / TD's 0.

RUTGERS

Scholastic Background: Switched from defensive end to defensive tackle with two games left on the schedule to help his Wayne Valley High School team. Won the "Sportsmanship" award at his graduation after participating in both football and track and field. Established a state sectional record in the javelin, 196 feet . . . Varsity Statistics: Tackles 1974 Prim. 1 / Asst. 1 / Tot. 2; 1975 Prim. 53 / Asst. 25 / Total 78.

JON S. WALLING, 21, 6-5, 230, junior tight end from East Brunswick . . . Quikquote: "Jon has what you could call soft hands. The ball seems to float into his arms and then he takes off for some more yardage. Also an excellent blocker." — (Curl) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. The second leading receiver on the squad, Jon averaged 12.8 yards per reception. A transfer from Purdue where he played varsity ball as a freshman, Jon sat out the 1974 season but had an outstanding spring practice to win a starting berth. His lone touchdown was against Bucknell in the opening game, his first for Rutgers. His size and strength make him a very good blocker but he can also break loose for the long touchdown. An anthropology major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: A two-way end at East Brunswick, Jon won all-county honors and was an all-state honorable mention. Twice he was his school's MVP in basketball before graduation in 1973. Also lettered in track . . . Varsity Statistics: 1975 (Passing) Cgt. 11 / Yds. 141 / TD's 1.

ELVIN WASHINGTON, 20, 5-11, 220, junior linebacker from Newark . . . Quikquote: "Elvin has a tremendous amount of potential. He loves to hit and has the quickness and agility you like to see in a linebacker. He has gained much valuable experience." — (Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1975. Saw plenty of action last year as both a starter and key reserve. Wound up the second leading tackler on squad with 87. Also intercepted a pass and recovered a fumble. Elvin began his freshman season as the number three middle guard but was given a shot at a linebacking job, earning a starting role against Connecticut and then starring in the 6-0 win over Boston U. with a 42-yard interception for the only score. A liberal arts student at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: Earned four letters at Vailsburg High School in Newark while playing four different positions, including a stint as a fullback. He was an all-city, all-county and all-state selection, and in track, set the shot putt record for his school . . . Varsity Statistics (Tackles) 1974 Prim. 21 / Asst. 17 / Total 38; 1975 Prim. 54 / Asst. 33 / Total 87.

JOHN WASHINGTON, 20, 6-0, 190, sophomore full-back from Paterson . . . Quikquote: "John has plenty of natural talent but he needs some additional experience to make a real contribution to the team. He's very quick and strong." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: "Bubba," as he is called by the coaching staff, started for the jayvee squad last year and averaged over four yards per carry. Also saw limited action with the varsity, playing on special teams because of his speed and strength. A liberal arts major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-area and all-county selection as a running back for John F. Kennedy High School in Paterson. Also lettered in track.

FRESHMAN

There's little question that the Rutgers University football coaching staff believes strongly in the quality of football played in the state of New Jersey. It's solidly reflected in the recruiting for the 1976 season.

About 70 per cent, 18 out of 26 recruits, are residents of the Garden State. And, not inappropriately for the State University, the figure for the entire 1976 squad reaches to the 80 per cent level.

"We are firmly committed to the idea that the squad should have a definite New Jersey flavor," says head coach Frank Burns, a Garden Stater also. "We certainly want that identity and would hope to attract most of the top athletes in the state to our program."

A list of the freshmen recruits follows:

RUTGERS STADIUM

An especially kind home to the Scarlet Knights for nearly 40 years, Rutgers Stadium was dedicated on November 5, 1938 and, appropriately, the day saw a 20-18 victory over Princeton, the Scarlet's first win over the Tigers since the nation's inaugural intercollegiate game in 1869.

The Stadium has experienced 38 football seasons and 28 of them have come up as winning home seasons for Rutgers, including the last nine in a row. Construction on the Stadium began in 1935 with funds from the federal Works Progress Administration and Rutgers University. Today's East and West stands sit along the sides of a narrow ravine from which 160,000 cubic yards of earth were originally removed.

Over the years, 44 colleges and three service teams have visited the beautiful bowl which seats as many as 31,000 — a capacity figure which thrilled to the 29-0 win over Princeton in the nationally televised Centennial Game in 1969. Louisville will make its first visit here this season.

GIANTS STADIUM

Giants Stadium will be the scene of the Rutgers-Columbia game, October 23, the first intercollegiate contest in the new Meadowlands wonder which will seat nearly 80,000. The Lions Sight Foundation will sponsor the game between the rival schools which first played in 1870 and whose beginnings pre-date the American Revolution. It is uniquely appropriate as a Bicentennial event in this historic year.

DID YOU KNOW . . . ?

The Rutgers defense was ranked among the nation's top 10 teams in four categories in 1975 — fourth in total defense and in scoring defense, eighth in rushing defense and ninth in passing defense. Along the way, the Scarlet put together 19 straight quarters in which it did not allow a touchdown from scrimmage. The offense established records for total yardage, rushing yardage, rushing attempts and total plays.

Mark Twitty, who combined with Bert Kosup in the 1974 Colgate game for the longest pass play in Rutgers history (90 yards), has averaged an amazing 26 yards for 33 receptions in two seasons. He has scored 10 TDs and totaled 858 yards, figures that put him within shooting distance of several records. Twitty needs exactly 300 yards to tie Jack Emmer's career yardage, 43 receptions to reach Emmer, and three touchdowns to tie Bob Simms' TD total.

Sophomores Bob and Walt Hynoski of Manville are twins. Only once before has the team had twins, the Kenny duo from Closter in the early sixties.

Rutgers won all seven games in Rutgers Stadium last season to make it nine perfect home seasons for the Scarlet. The overall winning percentage at home is nearly 80 per cent.

Of the 1976 scholarship freshmen, 18 of 26 are New Jersey residents. In 1973, it was 22 of 24 and last year, 16 of 22. Eighty per cent of the team lives in the Garden State. Would you say there is a New Jersey flavor on the squad?

William V. B. Van Dyck, Jr., Rutgers Class of 1895 and a former Scarlet player and coach, visited last season for the finale win over Syracuse. Van Dyke coached at Rutgers in 1899. He is 100 years old. (See photo above)

The 1976 season marks the 107th anniversary of Rutgers football. The first inter-collegiate football game was played between Rutgers and Princeton on November 6, 1869. The site of that contest is behind the current Rutgers Gymnasium on College Avenue. The area is now a parking lot.

Seniors Nate Toran and John Alexander should win their fourth football letters this season. They join 1975 mainstays, Dwight Lipscomb and Tom Holmes, as the only four over the past 25 years to turn the trick. Lipscomb and Holmes were the first freshmen to receive varsity letters since 1954 as first-year players were not allowed to compete on varsity teams from then until 1972.

Three Rutgers players, all selected to All-America teams between 1914 and 1918 by Walter Camp, were pioneer members of professional football teams in the mid-west, the precursors of today's NFL teams. Bob "Nasty" Nash, Al "Budge" Garrett and Paul "Robey" Robeson played together on the Akron Pros team in 1920. Nash and Garrett played a year earlier in the initial season of the American Professional Football Association for the Massillon Tigers with Nash as a coach also. Robeson played for three seasons with three different teams, Akron, the Hammond Pros and the Milwaukee Badgers. Garrett's three seasons were spent in Akron and with the Cleveland Indians in the same season and with Massillon and Milwaukee. Nash was with Massillon, Akron, three years with the Buffalo All Americans and ended his pro career with the New York Giants (1925, the first year of the franchise purchased by Tim Mara for $500).

Nate Toran was a third team Associated Press All-America in 1975. Toran was also an All-East selection and was joined by first team ECAC picks Tony Ray and Curt Edwards. John Alexander and Jim Teatom were honorable mention All-East selections.

RUTGERS' ALL-AMERICANS

Four authentic, 24-karat First Team All-Americans have played football at Rutgers. Selected by nationally recognized agencies, the Scarlet choices represent six different years (two named twice) and range over a period of 45 years. One is a Hall of Famer and there is hope that another will soon enter the Hall of Fame.

The Scarlet All-Americans are Paul Robeson (1917-18), Homer Hazel (1923-24), William Austin (1958) and Alex Kroll (1961).

Between 1913 and 1918, four other Rutgers players were selected to the second and third teams named by Walter Camp. Howard Talman was named twice to Camp's third team, in 1913 as a guard and in 1914 as a halfback, and to the second team as a fullback in 1915. Bob "Nasty" Nash was a second-team tackle in 1914; Al "Budge" Garrett a third-team guard in 1916; and Frank Kelley a third team halfback in 1919.

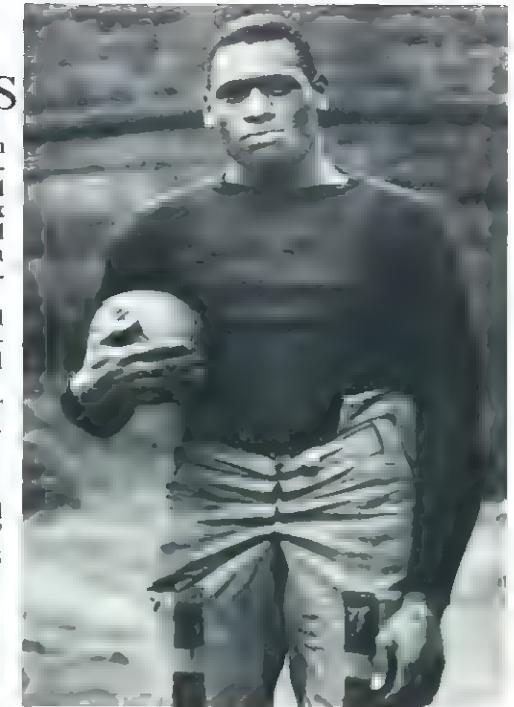

Robeson was the first Rutgers All-American in 1917, though Camp did not publish his list because of the war. Only the third black athlete to be selected, Robeson is the single two-time All-American not inducted into the Hall of Fame. However, the internationally known actor and concert artist, who died January 23, 1976, at the age of 77, is receiving strong support currently towards nomination.

Hazel, who died in 1968, was selected as an end and as a fullback in his two seasons of competition, years that produced identical 7-1-1 records. His last appearance at Rutgers was in 1967 and his 1958 visit is recorded in a picture with Austin. Hazel was voted into the Hall of Fame in 1951.

Austin was named to the Associated Press' first All-America backfield after captaining the Scarlet to an 8-1 record. A number of his records have been eclipsed recently but he remains the all-time career total offense leader. Austin starred both on offense and defense.

Kroll earned first team ranking on seven of nine nationally-named teams and led the Scarlet Knights to a 17-1 record in his two seasons, the second of which was the undefeated season (9-0) in 1961. Kroll captained the squad at center in his senior year.

Nate Toran was named to the Associated Press' third team All-America squad in 1975 as a defensive end.

RUTGERS FOOTBALL ON THE AIR

Rutgers football is covered by WCTC, 1450 AM and WQMR, 98.3 FM in New Brunswick and by WRSU, 88.7 FM, the student station on campus. A network, including WWJD in Hackensack and WTNJ in Trenton, will receive feeds of the games from WCTC. The stations will carry the play-by-play action of all 11 Scarlet contests. Tony Marano, who celebrates his silver anniversary as an announcer of Rutgers games, and Lee Shirvanian handle the broadcasts on WCTC/WQMR, and the student staff, headed by Gregg Tabakin, gives the exciting action for WRSU. The stations also bring the Scarlet picture up-to-date by daily coverage. Tune in and thrill to the refreshing insights provided by these radio broadcasts.

NAVY PROSPECTS

Navy sailed to its first winning season since 1967 last year, thanks largely to its nationally third-ranked defensive unit. George Welsh faces the loss of nine starters from that defense and the Academy's second all-time leading rusher, Bob Jackson. Returning, however, is junior quarterback John Kurowski, who is expected to add improved passing and judgment to his already well-established option game. Kurowski will also miss handing off to tailback Gerry Goodwin, and throwing to bluechip tight end Kevin Sullivan. Welsh made several switches among the ends and tackles on his defensive line, but his choice as one of the best linemen in the country, Jeff Sapp, is firmly anchored in the middle guard spot, where he made 98 tackles last year.

LAST GAME, 1969: RUTGERS 20, NAVY 6

NEW BRUNSWICK, October 18 — A Rutgers Stadium crowd of some 27,000 thrilled to a spectacular performance by sophomore tailback Larry Robertson. Filling a gap left by two injured starters, he made his first varsity start a memorable one as he scored all three touchdowns in a surprisingly easy victory. Displaying speed, sharp cuts, smashing drives for extra yards, and durability, Robertson carried 34 times for 161 yards, and scored on runs of 15 and 30 yards, and on a 15-yard toss from Rich Pollicastro. Tackle Len Novelli led a defense that held the Midshipmen, in their first visit to New Brunswick, to 69 yards on the ground, and a score with only 56 seconds remaining in the game.

BUCKNELL PROSPECTS:

Bob Curtis instituted rigorous practices "harder than our games," and molded, with the help of junior quarterback Kerry Snow, a winning season for the Bisons in 1975. Snow will be back this year looking to improve on 101 completions in 186 tries for 1,210 yards. He engineered a multiple-spread T offense that didn't get rolling until the second half last season, and can again look forward to favorite targets — wingback Vince Woody and ends Karl Meyer and Larry Brunt. But, Snow will miss handing off to last year's MVP, fullback Rick Wardrop. Four starters return to the offensive line and Jim Nesbitt and John Cofflet still anchor a top linebacking crew, but a once-experienced defensive secondary has only one returnee, junior Charlie Hagan.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: RUTGERS 47, BUCKNELL 3

NEW BRUNSWICK, September 20 — The Scarlet Knights used the big play, scoring from midfield or longer four times, to gain a resounding triumph in the season opener. In his first collegiate start, Matty Allison tossed four touchdown passes, including two of 48 and 55 yards to Mark Twitty and another pair of seven-yarders to Jon Walling and Curt Edwards. Kerry Snow passed for 295 yards, but three interceptions and failure to maintain momentum inside the 20 hurt the Bisons.

PRINCETON PROSPECTS:

With eight starters lost from both his offensive and defensive units, Bob Casciola still aims for the Tigers first winning season since 1971, when the Tigers went 5-4. He'll have to do so without the services of the best passer in Tiger history, Ron Beible, and the best pass-receiver in the team's history, Neil Chamberlin. Also graduated are last season's leaders in tackles, scoring (placekicker Scott Morrison) and rushing, along with the punter and the entire defensive backfield. Rebuilding the offensive line is Casciola's number one priority, but the defensive line is solid, with All-America candidate Ted Schiller as ringleader. Numerous sophomores are expected to fill gaps, especially in the offensive line and backfield.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: PRINCETON 10, RUTGERS 7

PRINCETON, September 27 — Ron Beible, though he couldn't remember it for a while because a knock on the head caused amnesia, engineered a 16-play scoring drive that spanned 67 yards and brought Princeton victory in the 66th renewal of college football's oldest rivalry before almost 31,000 fans in Palmer Stadium. Indications, including a first quarter touchdown drive covering 71 yards capped by Curt Edward's three-yard plunge, that Rutgers might have an easy time if it were reversed by a strong second half showing by the Tigers. The Rutgers defense bonded together to make four stands on crucial occasions, and the unit was on the job for over 21 minutes of the second half. Princeton controlled the ball, allowing just eight minutes of possession to the Knights, who got little rolling against a good Tiger defense. A second Rutgers touchdown early in the game was called back because of a holding penalty.

After installing his own system, Seifert is planning to eliminate the costly fumbles, inconsistency of all three quarterbacks, and defensive breakdowns that left the Big Red on the bottom of the Ivy League last year. A sophomore, Jim Hofher, will challenge for the quarterbacking spot against the three returning QB's — junior Garland Burns and seniors Jay LaRochelle and Joe Mollica. The rest of the offense will come back almost entirely intact, including the No. 1 runner, tailback Tim LaBeau. Two blue-chippers from a 4-1 freshman squad, John Riley and Ken Talton, may also add wallop to the backfield, as may Michigan transfer Joey Holland, whose father played at Cornell in 1937 and 1938 and earned a spot in the National Football Hall of Fame. A good part of the defense also returns, except for the painful losses of first-team All-Ivy linemen Bob Hall and Steve Horrigan.

ITHACA, N. Y., October 7 — Speedy John McKeown blocked a field goal attempt and returned it 84 yards in the second quarter to start a string of five straight Cornell touchdowns that wiped out a 1-0 Rutgers lead. McKeown also went on to block two punts. The Cornell quarterback, Mark Allen, abandoned a passing attack because of a driving rain that fell throughout most of the game. Instead, he ran for three scores himself and used the running of tailback Dan Malone to get back into the game after early drives were frustrated by two fumbles and a pair of Rutgers interceptions.

CONNECTICUT PROSPECTS:

Coach Larry Naviaux is hoping the momentum produced by winning three of last year's final four games will carry over into this fall. Bernie Palmer engineers an offense that came on strong in that period, and Palmer is an effective punter in addition to his quarterbacking capabilities. Also returning to the offensive backfield is Nick Giaquinto, who sported 5.3 yards a carry last year. The junior halfback was also a big threat when returning punts or kickoffs. On defense, star safety Rich Fenton may be the only survivor of a defensive secondary shakeup, but Naviaux feels the forward defense is set fairly well.

LEHIGH PROSPECTS:

New head coach John Whitehead, succeeding Fred Dunlap who returns to his alma mater, Colgate, plans to stick to the policies that have lifted Lehigh into the Division II limelight. Whitehead had been an assistant for nine years, the last four as coordinator of an offense that averaged 35.8 points a game last season. The offense, however, is losing its All-America passing star Joe Sterrett, so Whitehead will have to depend on junior Mike Rieker. Otherwise, a veteran line and backfield, including second team All-America runner Rod Gardner, who has broken all sorts of Lehigh records, are returning. The Engineers' chief worry, then, is whether a defense that lost numerous standouts can produce.

BETHLEHEM, PA., Oct. 11 — Lehigh scored on the third play from scrimmage and rolled up a 28-7 second quarter lead on a Rutgers defense that had permitted just one touchdown in its first three games. Runners Rod Gardner, a native of Maplewood, N. J., and Mark Weaver (on only 12 carries) amassed 122 and 144 yards, respectively, to give the Engineers their first win over the Scarlet since 1971. Another New Jerseyan, running back Dave April, got several key first downs for the home team, while halfback Mike Fisher scored each of Rutgers' three TD's. Jack Tracy, with two interceptions, was the ringleader for a superb Lehigh defense.

The Lions also lost the Ivy League Player of the Year in running back Doug Jackson, but the No. 2, 3, and 4 runners, juniors Kirk Combs, Bruce Stephens, and Jay Hickey, are back in the fold. QB Kevin Burns will be depended on to open up the Lions' veer attack, coming off a one-year layoff because of a broken collarbone. The offensive line, a big and pleasant surprise last season, remains a chief strength, as does an experienced defensive secondary. The defensive line must be rebuilt, however, around All-Ivy pick Tim Towler.

MASSACHUSETTS' PROSPECTS:

Coach MacPherson's five-year record at UMass is 39-19-1 and nine starters return from the defensive unit that was solid last year. Co-captain Brian McNally, who threw seven TD passes and scored five times, has a fine back-up in lefty Mike Fallon but the offensive unit returns just five starters. Still, Rich Jessamy (6 TDs), Billy Coleman and John Romboli are experienced runners and kicking specialist Dave Croasdale was the top scorer last year with 22 PATs and eight (of 10) field goals. Harvard and Toledo, with Rutgers, are new on the schedule which is a bit tougher.

LAST GAME, 1973: MASSACHUSETTS 25, RUTGERS 22

NEW BRUNSWICK, October 6 — Down by three points with 2:18 remaining, Rutgers drove 95 yards to the UMass two-yard line and sent "JJ" Jennings for the score. But, officials declared he was stopped short and imposed an offside penalty on the visitors. With a first and two at the half-yard line, Rutgers was called for an offsides infraction and the ball was placed on the six with six seconds left. The ensuing pass failed and UMass escaped with its second win in the two-game series (UMass took the 1967 contest, 30-7). Frank Burns had gambled boldly and lost as controversy swirled. Jennings carried for a record 230 yards and scored on runs of 59 and 25 yards which gave the Scarlet a 14-13 halftime lead, but UMass converted two fumbles into scores to go ahead, 25-14. Rutgers scored on a Gary Smolyn to Bob Oldt pass with a Jennings conversion run to set the stage for the last exciting minutes. Rutgers had lost a TD when offsetting penalties nullified a 101-yard kickoff return by Angelo Figueroa at the start of the second half. Jennings would go on to lead the nation in scoring and surge to the top of the heap of the all-time Rutgers runners.

LOUISVILLE'S PROSPECTS:

Coach Vince Gibson hopes a tape recorder will help him avoid another disastrous season (1-10), the worst ever for a Cardinal squad. He'll record all his thoughts except those about the loss of kicking specialist Wilbur Summers and all-time rushing leader Walter Peacock. Thirty-eight lettermen, including 10 starters, should help in the rebuilding program and so should some beefy recruits for the offensive line. Last year's part-time starter John Darling is the No. 1 QB and veteran seniors Marc Mitchell and Tony Smith will be important in the two tight-end system. The Cardinal schedule is tough.

FIRST MEETING

This will be the first football meeting between Rutgers and Louisville although the squads have met on the basketball court, in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament in 1975. The Scarlet Knights and the Cardinals could meet again on the court at the Louisville Classic late in December. The University of Louisville has an undergraduate enrollment of 16,600. Vince Gibson coached at Kansas State between 1967 and 1974 and posted a 33-52 record. The 1-10 mark last year was the worst since 1964 when the Cardinals were 1-9.

LETTERMEN LOST: 26

TULANE'S PROSPECTS:

A new coach, a new staff and a new approach dedicated to a program of "emotion and enthusiasm" will try to turn the Tulane picture around after a 4-7 season. Heavy losses, six offensive starters and seven on defense, make Larry Smith's debut tough but he will be able to start lettermen at all 22 positions. Top ground gainer Don Lemon, Gary Rudick and Billy Kramer return to the backfield but the skill positions, including quarterback, three down linemen, two centers and two wide receivers must be replaced. Tulane lost its final five games in 1975 but a half dozen Green Wave athletes are listed as All-South candidates, including QB heir apparent, Terry Looney.

FIRST MEETING

This is the first meeting between Rutgers and Tulane and the Scarlet Knights are anxious to play in the already legendary Superdome where the Green Wave will host six opponents in eight games this season. Cincinnati, Boston College, Army, Memphis State and West Virginia are the other visitors in exotic New Orleans. Tulane coach Larry Smith will make his collegiate head coaching debut this year though he brings impressive credentials to the job. He served as an assistant coach to Bo Schembechler at Miami of Ohio before moving with Schembechler to Michigan. He also worked at Arizona for three seasons.

Lehigh 38, Colgate 6
Bucknell 24, Colgate 16
Colgate 21, William and Mary 17
Rutgers 56, Colgate 14

COLGATE'S PROSPECTS:

Red Raider coach Fred Dunlap was expected first to install the wing-T in his return to his Alma Mater after 11 seasons at Lehigh and he must find a quarterback to operate it as Bruce Basile, the wishbone specialist, is gone. Four returning runners could provide a potent attack — juniors Pat Healy and Henry White who together gained over 1,300 yards, and seniors Keith Polito and Bill Schick. Four regulars return to the offensive and the defensive lines and, like the secondary, the units should be strong. Junior Jerry Andrewlavage will handle the PAT, field goal and punting chores. With 16 starters and 28 lettermen on hand, Dunlap could debut well.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: RUTGERS 56, COLGATE 14

NEW BRUNSWICK, November 22, 1975 — After five straight wins, Rutgers was shocked by scores on the first two Colgate possessions but the Scarlet defense stiffened and a 76-yard pass play from Jeff Rebholz to Mark Twitty put Rutgers on the board at the end of the first period. Three second quarter TDs put the game in Scarlet hands at 28-14. Seven Scarlet backs scored before the day was over as the home team ran up 431 yards on the ground and 275 in the air for 32 first downs. Rebholz was six for nine for 230 yards in passing, Twitty and Fisher taking two each for 110 and 71 yards, respectively. Curt Edwards gained 131 yards on 21 carries.

- A CAPSULE HISTORY OF THE SERIES -

By LARRY PITT

NAVY

For most in this Bicentennial year, Navy stirs memories of football's 1969 Centennial, the color of the Midshipmen's first grid visit above the Raritan and the 20-6 initial Rutgers win in the eight-game series. Along with it there is such lore as: an eventual 8-6-0 Scarlet 1891 team losing the rivalry opener, the first of three games in four days, 20-12, later taking the only victory over Army, 27-6; a 1-0 forfeit loss in 1897; and a prized and much celebrated 0-0 tie with an undefeated and unscored upon 1910 Navy squad by Queensmen who finished 3-2-3 (a trio of scoreless deadlocks that year).

BUCKNELL

The 12-game Bucknell series shows eight wins, some big such as last year's 47-3 contest, but also close thrillers like the 23-19 victory in 1960 and the 16-14 game in 1974. But, right from the 20-13 start in 1922, there's been a Bison upset role, the biggest a 12-7 spoiler in Franklin Field's rain and mud for the 1924 finale of the until then undefeated season fashioned by Homer Hazel, Heinie Benkert and teammates. Other Bison upsets were 15-8 in 1959 and 14-13 in 1971.

PRINCETON

Princeton provides a 66-game parade of memories. Since the 1869 inaugural with all its "firsts," there is the colorful 1933 series revival after a 19-year lapse and an Arnie Truex to Walt Winika pass for the only touchdown all season against the undefeated Tigers under Fritz Crisler . . . building to the historic 1938 (20-18) Rutgers Stadium dedication victory, another home win in 1947, the decisive 22-6 breaking of the Palmer Stadium "jinx" in 1948, and the eventual celebration of the grid Centennial, a nationally televised 29-0 Scarlet triumph. Recent competition in the treasured traditional rivalry has been generally even, but unpredictable, including the disappearing goalpost 6-6 tie of 1974.

CORNELL

Of only seven games duration, the Cornell series, which began in the Big Red's early 20's national power era, has been a colorful one. The 10-0 Scarlet victory sandwiched between two losses in that early period was a major accomplishment of the legendary 1924 season. The modern games have been just as exciting. An eventual 8-2 Scarlet squad was edged, 17-16, in the 1968 renewal but the next season brought an important 21-7 home win while 1971 and 1972 featured wide-open play in Cornell decisions, 31-17 and 36-22.

CONNECTICUT

The Connecticut rivalry began with lopsided Scarlet wins in the pre-WW II Rutgers Stadium as a start toward a current 11-5 series advantage for Rutgers. However, since the Huskies blew open a very close 1956 game in the second half of a 27-7 success in the series renewal (on the memorable day of their stadium dedication), Scarlet Knight victories have been mostly of the hard-pressed variety, defeats basically close shockers.

LEHIGH

A rich 72-game tradition has made fine but rugged athletic friends. The Queensmen won big during the Brown and White's pioneer fall of 1884 but the Scarlet's only loss the next year was the Engineer's initial victory. Not until Paul Robeson and Frank Kelley sparked a 39-0 win in 1918 did Rutgers move toward more balance, including a spectacular and key 13-all tie in the big 1924 season. Following came a meaningful Middle Three formalization and a Rutgers success string which helped build the current 40-31-1 margin.

COLUMBIA

Columbia has an honored position here — the second oldest grid competition begun with a Rutgers victory on a windy 1870 New Brunswick Election Day. In 47 games, it's 21 wins each, five ties. Lion victories include three between post WWII Eastern powers, one an unforgettable 40-28 early TV booster. With regular annual play beginning in 1953, it's been 14-8 in Rutgers favor, the biggest Scarlet win the great come-from-behind 32-19 climax to the 9-0 season in 1961.

MASSACHUSETTS, LOUISVILLE, TULANE

Massachusetts, Louisville and Tulane are more indicative of change than of tradition in Rutgers football. Only UMass has been met before, Greg Landry leading one win over the Scarlet, 30-7, in 1967, and the strong Minutemen making it an exciting second, 25-22, in 1973. Rutgers has had some southern intersectional action, as early as 1894 with North Carolina and Virginia, and with other notable games in the George Foster Sanford era, and the trip to Tampa in 1973. There was the 1922 Election Day meeting with Louisiana State in the Polo Grounds, a 25-0 Scarlet win which was carried on one of the earliest football radio broadcasts.

COLGATE

Back to the traditional, there's Colgate. This series of 29 games and the 16-13 advantage for the Knights started with three hard-earned Red Raider wins in the glory days of Andy Kerr's double-wing, was continued by two exciting post-war Scarlet successes and has seen regular meetings since 1951. The games have had such features as identical 48-6 turnabouts in 1956 and 1957, a tough frigid struggle in the latest game ever up in Hamilton for the Knight's undefeated 1961 squad and some wild record-breaking, including the 55-34 thriller in 1968, during the generally season-closing Rutgers Stadium games.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW JERSEY

A BRIEF HISTORY

Only one university in the United States can claim a colonial background, designation as a land-grant college and the status of a state university. Rutgers, New Jersey's State University, has this distinction.

Now one of the major universities in this country with more than 46,000 students enrolled in college credit courses in 1975, Rutgers had its beginnings when clergymen of the Dutch Reformed Church in America launched a movement for a new College in the Province of New Jersey in the mid-eighteenth century.

As a result of their efforts, Royal Governor William Franklin granted a charter for the college in the name of King George III of England on November 10, 1766. The college was the eighth founded in the colonies.

A second charter, under which college study actually began, was issued by Governor Franklin in 1770, naming the institution Queen's College in honor of Charlotte of Mecklenburg, the Royal Consort.

Classes first opened in 1771 in a tavern in New Brunswick, The Sign of the Red Lion, under the tutelage of Frederick Frelinghuysen. In 1774, 19-year-old Matthew Leydt, son of a clergyman, trustee and founder of the college, became the first graduate.

After weathering the Revolutionary War, the college built its first building in 1791 in downtown New Brunswick. But it was not until 1809 that work began on Rutgers' oldest existing structure, Old Queens.

The handsome three-story brownstone is now the administrative center of the University and is a symbol of Rutgers for students, faculty, alumni and friends of the institution throughout the world.

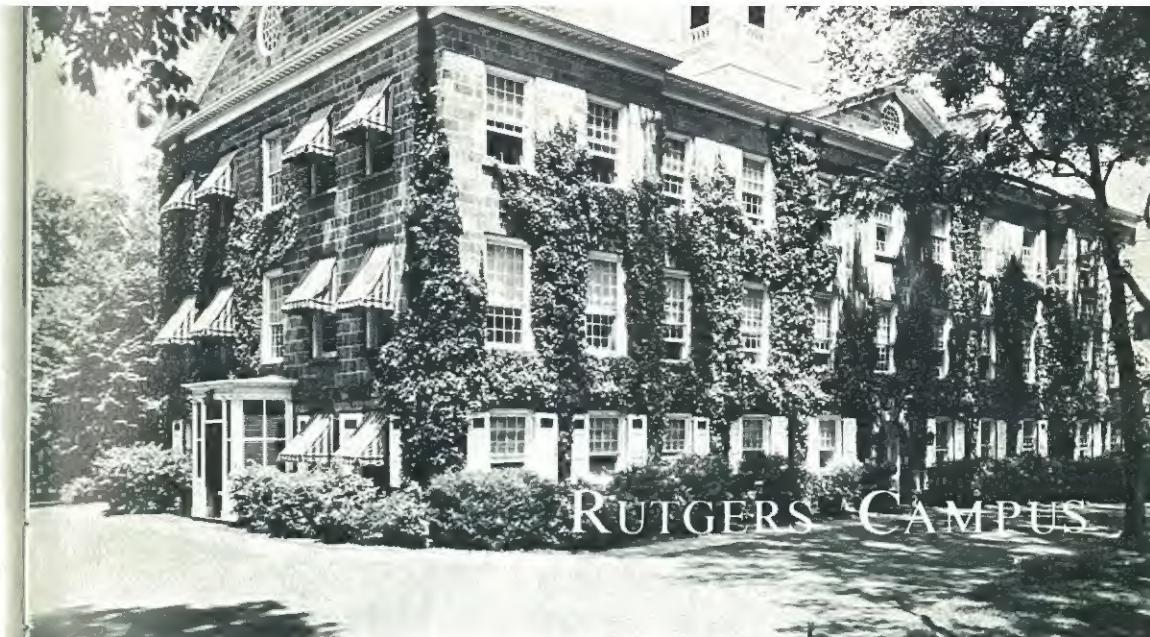

In 1825, the trustees renamed the institution Rutgers in honor of Col. Henry Rutgers, a New York philanthropist and Revolutionary War soldier, who had given the college modest financial assistance and the bell which still hangs in the cupola of Old Queens.

During its early years the college was a classical or liberal arts institution like most others of the period. But in 1864, with the organization of the Rutgers Scientific School, including departments of agriculture, engineering, and chemistry, Rutgers was designated by the State Legislature as the Land-Grant College of New Jersey.

Rutgers College assumed University status in 1924 and in 1945 the Legislature designated all of its divisions as the State University of New Jersey. The New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station, established on the campus in 1880, also became part of the State University at this time. And within four years the University of Newark and the College of South Jersey at Camden were added as major divisions, thus expanding the campus of the State University to two of the major urban centers of the state.

The relationship between Rutgers and the State was carried a step further when the Legislature in 1956, on the proposal of the Board of Trustees, created a Board of Governors to run the University. The name of the institution was also changed under this act to Rutgers — The State University..

Since 1956, aided by bond issue funds approved by voters in 1959, 1964, 1968, and 1971, Rutgers has grown rapidly in enrollment, in physical facilities and in the variety and depth of its educational and research programs.

Scarlet R . . . The Team Behind the Teams

As the "team" behind the teams, the Scarlet R program plays a vital role in Rutgers University reaching new levels of success in athletic competition. Scarlet R members provide the needed funds to sustain a competitive program and to keep Rutgers teams among the best in the nation. As the Scarlet R program continues to grow, its basic purpose remains the same — to provide financial aid for qualified student-athletes and to improve the quality of men's and women's intercollegiate athletics at Rutgers University.

Additional information concerning the Scarlet R Club may be obtained by contacting Scarlet R Club, Rutgers University Foundation, 191 College Avenue, New Brunswick, N. J. 08903, Anthony D. Oliva, Executive Secretary, (201) 932-7629.
